

So the substitute was adopted.

The said bill was then read the second time and passed.

On motion of Mr. Harding, the house took up for consideration the bill reported by Mr. Keene, from the committee on grievances and courts of justice, entitled, an act supplemental to an act limiting the time for the collections of fees of Attorneys, Solicitors, Clerks, Registers, Sheriffs, and other officers of this State, passed at December session 1833, ch. 258.

On motion of Mr. Harding, said bill was amended by inserting after the word 'next,' in the last line thereof, the following, 'for all such fees and levies now due and delivered to the Sheriffs and Collectors of this State before the 15th March last.'

The said bill was then read the second time as amended, and passed.

On motion of Mr. Price,

The House adjourned until to-morrow morning ten o'clock.
